
BALLS BROTHERS

LONDON

EST. 1860

In 1860, Henry Balls purchased the Old George Public House on Bethnal Green Road and quickly became renowned for the qualities of ports, brandies and sheries that they served. His sons, Austin and Harry, expanded the business setting up several speciality shops from which to sell their goods, and the Balls Brothers quickly became renowned as wine purveyors of the most discerning taste.

Over the next century, the history of Balls Brothers was intrinsically tied to the history of London. Both continued to grow throughout the end of the 20th century and proved resilient to the challenges of a global depression and both World Wars. In 1960, Balls Brothers entered its modern incarnation, with the opening of their first wine bar on Carey Street, and the expansion continued over the next 40 years.

Balls Brothers of London began as a humble purveyor of wines in industrial-era East London, and grew to become the second homes of the movers and shakers of post-industrial London in the latter half of the twentieth century, remaining a symbol of quality and homegrown London commerce.

The menu is comprised of updated versions of several classic libations of the British Empire, and incorporates the original goods purveyed by the company – port, brandy and sherry combined with the bringing back to the fore of the incredible products that they originally imported but are no longer particularly well-known or understood - in a modern and appealing way.

BALLS
BROTHERS
LONDON
EST. 1868

Here's a handful of some of our favourite gins, perfectly suited to our tonics!

1 AVIATION USA, 42% £5.20

Aviation was an early pioneer in the new era of craft gin. A simple concoction of gin, maraschino liqueur, and freshly-squeezed lemon juice, it was allegedly invented by barman Hugo Ensslin at New York's Hotel Wallick in 1916

2 KING OF SOHO England, 42% £5.85

An authentic London Dry gin distilled using traditional methods by an 11th generation master distiller. Crafted with 12 botanicals creating a delicate combination of sweetness, citrus and earthiness to produce the unique flavour profile, as a tribute to the original 'King of Soho' Paul Raymond

3 GIN MARE Spain, 42.7% £5.85

Made in the small Spanish fishing town of Vilanova, near Barcelona, Gin Mare epitomises Mediterranean spirit. Rosemary, thyme, olive, and basil are included in the botanical line up

4 THE BOTANIST Scotland, 46% £5.95

An exciting gin from Islay whisky distillery Bruichladdich. The Botanist is made in a Lomond still christened Ugly Betty and contains no fewer than 31 botanicals, of which 22 are native to the island itself
